

Sara Dagher

Betty Montgomery Scholarship Winner

Sara is a rising 3L and an Eminent Scholar at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. At Moritz, she is a Research Assistant on social movement lawyering and police and prison abolition for Professor Amna Akbar. She is also a member of the National Lawyers Guild at Moritz and in Ohio. Her legal interests include social movement lawyering, cyber civil rights, and defending activists' and journalists' right to free speech. Before law school, Sara was a senior staffer on progressive campaigns in Michigan, including Dr. Abdul El-Sayed's campaign for Governor and Attorney General Dana Nessel's campaign. She also consulted for Justice Democrats and progressive congressional candidates in New York. This summer, Sara will intern at Community Legal Services of Philadelphia, where she will provide direct client work for workplace discrimination, immigrant workers' rights, workers compensation, and more. At her Palestine Legal internship this fall, she will work on academic freedom litigation, know your rights trainings, and legislative work. Sara received her undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan's Ford School of Public Policy. She has a demon cat named Smush, enjoys bicycling, and is a big fan of women's soccer.
