

Hannah Harris
Capital University Law School
2020 WLFC Scholarship Winner

Hannah earned her undergraduate degree in Political Science from the College of Charleston in Charleston, South Carolina. Upon returning to her hometown of Columbus, Ohio, she enrolled in Capital University Law School's Paralegal Program. Early on in her Paralegal career, Hannah decided to go back to school in pursuit of her J.D. and enrolled as an evening student at Capital. She is slated to graduate in September 2020. As a student at Capital Hannah has served as the Vice President and the Director of Programming for the Women's Law Association, as a Staff Member for the Capital University Law Review, and as a Peer Advisor for incoming 1L law students. Hannah is looking forward to winding down her law studies and refocusing her energy and spare time on reading books that contain no cases and spending time volunteering for some of her favorite non-profits.
